Shape the future today

UNLEASH YOUR TRUE POTENTIAL

Shape the future today

EVERY is creating a new era in technology and business. Our customers depend on us for the digital transformation of their businesses. It is an exciting time and provides a great opportunity for smart and engaged individuals looking for impactful work. EVERY invites you to apply your talent and contribute towards a brighter digital future. The future belongs to those who prepare for it today.

Who are we?

EVERY India is a wholly owned subsidiary of $1.5 billion Norwegian IT group EVERY, the largest Nordic IT Group. EVERY has more than 10,000 customers in the Nordics and more than 8,500 employees across offices in 10 countries.

Why work with EVERY India?

We have embraced design thinking to confront disruption. We work on projects with a high social impact and commercial impact. VR, AR, robotics, blockchain and AI are just some of the innovations we are working on.

What do we do?

At EVERY, we partner with customers to create Digital Advantage. By introducing fresh insight and expertise we help them navigate new opportunities, modernize their business and innovate new game changing solutions. We provide business-specific solutions and integrated services for Digital Transformation: Consulting, Customer experience, Operational excellence, Digital security, Social, Mobile, Analytics, Cloud engineering enablement, IoT and Intelligent decision services. We also provide integrated services across the entire life cycle of software development.

GLOBAL PARTNERSHIPS

Four global giants dominate the public cloud services market today - IBM, Microsoft, Google and Amazon Web Services (AWS).

Having established strategic partnerships with all four, EVERY has gained a unique position in being able to offer best-fit cloud solutions for any organization. Our ambition is to become the best and most trusted public cloud advisor in the Nordics.

Which companies we do business with?

EVERY India's clients include Fortune 1000 companies, software firms and tech start-ups in insurance & healthcare, banking & financial services, retail and logistics industries.

How we deliver?

EVERY India's process and project maturity is very high with our development centers in Bangalore and Chandigarh. Our clients' objectives are realized by using tailored tools and processes integrated with built-in engineering support groups.

Workplace by Facebook - an uber-cool way for internal communication and collaboration

A connected business is more productive, open and transparent and is also quicker and more agile in terms of collaboration on a company-wide basis. Workplace by Facebook connects all employees within the organization.

One of the very first Workplace service partners, EVERY implements Workplace by Facebook in our clients' organizations to get the most out of the new way of collaboration and knowledge sharing. To practice what we preach, EVERY has successfully implemented Workplace across all its global locations and become one of the first companies to use it.
